Poem Lines Graphic Organizer

Complete the following graphic organizer to help you translate the two poem lines into movement.

Graphic Organizer for Shel Silverstein's "Eight Balloons"
Lines from the poem: "They broke loose and away they flew, Free to float and free to fly" "One fell in love with a porcupine – POP!"
Words from the poem: "They broke loose and away they flew,"	Write or draw your ideas here: Start in a small ball on the ground and slowly rise to a standing position with arms reaching above the head Tiptoe through the space	Record your energy and time elements here: Energy: free and light/lightweight Time: slow

Poem Lines Graphic Organizer

Complete the following graphic organizer to help you translate the two poem lines into movement.

Graphic Organizer for Shel Silverstein's "Eight Balloons"
Words from the poem: "Free to float and free to fly"	Write or draw your ideas here:	Record your energy and time elements here:
Words from the poem: "One fell in love with a porcupine—POP!"	Write or draw your ideas here:	Record your energy and time elements here: