

Reflection Starters

Prompts to Start a Reflection on Drama Class

Note: The following prompts begin an entire thought and can be used to develop your thoughts and ideas.

Note: Try to utilize two to four of the prompts provided. If there is something else you wish to share, continue to build on your ideas.

Note: Explore your thoughts and feelings with direct reference to what you learned and explored within the lesson.

When I did _____, it reminded me of...

I really want to know more about _____, because...

I'm really happy about _____, because...

If I were to sum up my experience in this lesson in one word it would be _____, because...

I am excited to try _____, because...

When I think about what I accomplished in this task, I think about...