

Making Connections

Examine the artwork by Keith Haring and complete the following chart. Start with an idea from Keith Haring’s artwork, then think about how it could be translated to music, and which element of music that relates to.

An example has been provided to get you started.

Ideas From the Keith Haring Artwork	How They Could be Translated into Music?	Element of Music
The multiple dots on the floor	Short (staccato) notes repeating over and over again	Dynamics and expressive controls