

The Great Flood Art Analysis

Describe what is in the image. Think about the size of elements and their position in relation to other elements in the image.
What elements of design do you notice in the following painting? Elements of design include line, shape, colour, value, form, texture and space.
What elements of Woodland Art do you notice in the following painting? Woodland Art elements include lines of power, lines of communication, lines of prophecy, lines of movement, divided circles, x-ray decoration and colour.
How did Norval Morriseau organize the piece? Why do you think he created it like this?

The Great Flood Art Analysis

Describe how the work makes you feel or what it makes you think about? Can you make a connection to the piece? (Image to yourself, image to another image, image to the world) Explain why that is an important connection.
How did learning about Woodland and Indigenous art forms help you understand more about this work? What might you have not fully understood without learning more about it?
Why do you think it is important to share the artwork of Morrisseau with future generations?	