

Nonfiction Text Feature

Nonfiction text features	Definition
Special Font	Words that are important are often underlined, written in bold, or written all in capital letters
Title	Informs the reader what the entire section is about.
Headings	Tells the reader what smaller parts of the section is about.
Charts / Diagrams / Graphs / Pictures	Helps the reader explain the text using a visual tool.
Labels	Helps the reader locate important parts of a picture or illustration.
Captions	Short but key information written underneath or near a photo or illustration.
Maps	Shares information that has to do locations (or where to find things in the world).
Table of contents	Helps the reader know which pages topics can be found on.
Glossary	A list of words and their definitions so the reader can learn what the words mean.