

Text Connections Chart

You may use the following prompts to guide your thinking as you reflect on the connections made with the previously explored texts in this learning activity.

Connections	My Responses
Text-to-self connections <ul style="list-style-type: none">• What similarities and differences did you have with Indigenous Peoples' ways of knowing, doing, and being and their approaches to the land and the environment?• Can you relate to anything that you learned about?• Is there anything from the two stories that you can connect with?• Did you read about anything that reminded you of your own life?
Text-to-text connections <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Were there any similarities or differences between the three texts that you explored? What were they?• Did anything remind you of something else you've read or learned about in the past?• Did Robin Kimmerer and the characters have anything in common?

Text Connections Chart

You may use the following prompts to guide your thinking as you reflect on the connections made with the previously explored texts in this learning activity.

Connections	My Responses
Text-to-world connection <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Did your learning remind you of anything you know about in the real world?• How does your learning relate to something you've experienced in the real world?• How will this learning help you navigate future situations in the real world?	