

Economic Systems Scramble

The sentences in the sentence bank describe one of the four economic systems.
Put each sentence into its appropriate economic system box.

Traditional	Market
Command	Mixed

Economic Systems Scramble

Copy and paste each sentence into the appropriate economic system box.

The government has minimal involvement in this system	A system based on customs and family traditions	A system based on government decisions about price and production
Some private independence is still available	Combines two other economic systems into one	People produce what they need to survive
Business owners make decisions based on supply and demand	Most people hunt, gather, or farm for resources	The government is responsible to sell goods
The government established basic rules and regulations	Producers continue to make products if consumers are willing to buy them	