

Review Questions

What does this phrase “we are all treaty people” mean?

Why is it important to all Canadians today?

What does this phrase mean specifically for settlers and Indigenous people respectively?