

Importance of Friends

Question:	Your response:
What are some differences between relationships with family and relationships with friends?
Are some relationships more important than others? Explain.
How do relationships help with our mental and emotional development?
Why might committed relationships be important? Explain your thinking.	