

Main Idea Chart

Main idea: In each rectangle, write a supporting detail from the text. When you have written all your details, write the main idea of the text in the middle.

A diagram of a Main Idea Chart. It consists of a large rounded rectangle divided into four quadrants by a horizontal and a vertical line. In the center, where the lines intersect, is a large empty oval. The four quadrants are intended for supporting details, and the central oval is for the main idea.
