

Inference Task Cards

What can you infer about the cat?

Whether the first ray of sunlight is on the floor or by a window, my cat is usually right there soaking it all up.

My inference:

What can you infer happened overnight?

When I walked out of my house in the morning, the garbage can was tipped over and there was garbage all over the floor!

My inference:

Inference Task Cards

Where can you infer the characters are going?

We bought tickets and some popcorn.

My inference:

What can you infer about the setting?

Marlon put on his raincoat and grabbed his umbrella as he walked out the door.

My inference:

Inference Task Cards

What can you infer about what the character likes to do?

Darla added another book to her wish list at the library. She had a collection of audio books and hard cover books that she could not wait to explore.

My inference:

What can you infer happened before?

The class applauded while Hassan took his seat.

My inference:

Inference Task Cards

What can you infer about the character's feelings?

Sanjay jumped up and down, clapping his hands. His best friend just scored the winning goal!

My inference:

What can you infer about Raphael?

When Raphael gets home from school every day, the first thing he does is play his piano.

My inference: