

Factual, Inferential or Universal?

Review the following questions and determine if they are factual, inferential or universal questions.

- What is the definition of population distribution?
- Why do people choose to live where they do?
- How are distribution patterns created?
- What is a scattered population?
- What is the difference between rural and urban population patterns?
- What factors affect population distribution in a particular area of the world?
- How do you calculate population density?
- Why does Canada have a low population density?
- What is the difference between rural and urban population patterns?

Factual, Inferential or Universal?

Review the following questions and determine if they are factual, inferential or universal questions.

Factual questions	Inferential questions	Universal questions