

Sides of a Debate Chart

Pro/For/Agree with Statement <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• reasoning (reasons) appeals to logic</li><li>• supported by facts and examples</li><li>• also includes appeals to emotion</li></ul>	Con/For/Agree with Statement <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• reasoning (reasons) appeals to logic</li><li>• supported by facts and examples</li><li>• also includes appeals to emotion</li></ul>
Rebuttal against Opposing Side <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• strengthen your side</li><li>• show how your side is more valid, convincing</li><li>• discredit</li><li>• show holes in logic of other side</li><li>• use cause and effect</li></ul>	This side listens, takes notes to prepare for rebuttal when it's their turn.
This side listens, takes notes to prepare for rebuttal when it's their turn.	Rebuttal against Opposing Side <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• strengthen your side</li><li>• show how your side is more valid, convincing</li><li>• discredit</li><li>• show holes in logic of other side</li><li>• use cause and effect</li></ul>