

Planning and Savings

A family of four have been wanting to go back home to visit their family for a few years now. They keep trying to put money aside to save for this trip but have not had much success. They both work full time and have two young children.