

Comparing Flyers

Task: Real world problem 1

Throughout the year, companies compete for consumers. Find similar products in a flyer such as computers, video games or food items and order their values from greatest to least. You can even compare the prices from different stores.

In what ways does this comparison change where you shop or what you purchase?

How does our learning from today's lesson support you in this activity?