

Making Connections Activity

Explore the following questions as you reflect on your learning.

1. Why is it useful to have different sized units to measure length?
2. What are some things we might choose to measure in centimetres instead of metres?
3. What are some things we might choose to measure in metres instead of centimetres?