

Discover More: Designing Curtains

1. A designer wants to hang a curtain on one window. The designer wants to measure how long the window is.

Which unit of measurement will the designer use to measure the length of the window?

2. The designer has 4 metres of material. The window is 5 door widths long.

Does the designer have enough material to cover the window? Why or why not?