

Which Shapes?

Consider each composite shape, then reflect on the following question:

How have individual common shapes been combined to create these resulting composite shapes?