

Your Design

1. Create a composite shape design.
2. Sketch or record a detailed audio/written description of your composite shape.
3. Determine the perimeter and area of your design.

Your Design

4. Reflect on the following questions:

How would you explain the process for calculating the perimeter and area of composite shapes to someone?

What is the most important tip for someone to understand composite shapes?