

Communications Chart

Sort the following topics into either column to match the different ways the government and the citizens can communicate with each other.

Communicating About Important Issues
Government to Citizens	Citizens to Government

Communications Chart

Topics:

Petitions, town hall meetings, public hearings, protests, boycotts, Supreme Court challenges, volunteer organizations, band council meetings, writing to MPs, MPPs, or MLAs, Métis general assemblies, referendums, nation-to-nation discussions with First Nations and/or Inuit governments, commissions of inquiry, asking local election candidates about their opinions on an issue, social media